

Be sure to visit the W.T. Foreman Prairie House, one of Duncan's oldest surviving examples of the Frank Lloyd Wright Prairie House style of architecture. Built around the early 1910s, the home is a registered historic site available for tours and teas at high noon!

814 W Oak, 580-252-1780

If hitting the gym or taking a swim is more your thing, be sure to visit The Simmons Center. The massive 105,000 square-foot facility houses a recreation center designed to meet the recreation and fitness needs of all ages through its outstanding design, state-of the art equipment and innovative programming. The facility boasts among other things: a Six Lane 25 meter swimming pool; two full sized gymnasiums designed for basketball, volleyball and tennis; Racquetball courts also equipped for walleyball and handball; Weight/exercise room; and a 9 hole disc golf course open to the public with no fees. The finale to this amazing facility is the exquisite performing arts theatre which has been heralded by performers all over the globe. Seating 750 in continental style seating, the Theatre showcases all of the performing arts including concerts from the Chisholm Trail Arts Council and local productions from Duncan Little Theatre as well as general sessions for conventions. Stop by for a tour - Whether you decide to join them just for the day or on a regular basis, you too can experience these tremendous facilities and remarkable services.

Duncan's numerous lakes offer RV camping, water sports, horseback riding, fishing, and hunting. Seventeen parks including Kiddieland Amusement Park and Centennial Park, favorites with children, provide opportunity for recreation, family reunions or old fashioned picnics.

Discover all there is to do in Duncan! Year round events, recreational facilities, and outdoor activities abound featuring concerts, plays, sporting events, rodeos, sport tournaments, festivals, antique shopping on Main and numerous special events. A complete list of events available online at www.duncanok.org or www.duncancalendar.com is guaranteed to invigorate visitors with a spirit of adventure.

*The spirit that built the west and tamed
the wide open spaces
lives on...in Duncan!*