

Quick Facts About Duncan, Oklahoma

Climate

Ideal for year-round outdoor activity with many opportunities to enjoy fishing, horseback riding, hunting, hiking, swimming and boating.

Geography

Duncan is located in Southwest Oklahoma in Stephens County approximately 90 miles south of Oklahoma City and 30 miles east of Lawton. Coordinates are 34°30'60"N, 97°56'58"W and the elevation is 1,112. The city encompasses 46 square miles of which 38.8 is land and 7.2 is water.

Duncan is part of the Great Plains area where the historic Chisholm Trail crossed, and where oil fields became Oklahoma's highest producing area until the 1980's. It has multiple lakes that are used to draw the city water supply as well as for recreation.

Population

As of the 2010 Census, the population of Duncan, Oklahoma is 23,431.

Transportation

U.S. Highway 81 is the major north-south thoroughfare. U.S. Highway 7 runs east and west to connect with I-35 and I-44

Daily Newspaper

The Duncan Banner.

In-Town Transportation

Taxi service is available from independent operators
Senior citizens have access to van transportation by calling the Senior Citizens Center at 580-255-6902
Red River Transportation 580-255-7883

Out- of Town Transportation

Enterprise Rent-A-Car 580-255-9777

Duncan Airport 580-252-9896

Corporate and charter flights are available. A service department is ready for any of your aircraft maintenance and training needs.

Regional Airports

Lawton Fort Sill Regional Airport

Is located 30 Miles West of Duncan and provides American Eagle service to Dallas

Will Rogers World Airport

Is located in Oklahoma City, 90 Miles North of Duncan

Additional Notes of Interest

Duncan is in the Central Standard time zone.

Duncan serves as the county seat for Stephens County.